A GENEALOGY
OF THE
APPLETON FAMILY,

BY

W. S. APPLETON.

“These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.”—Ezra ii. 62, and Nehemiah vii. 64.

BOSTON :
PRESS OF T. R. MARVIN & SON.

1874.

THESE pages are printed to the number of sixty copies, chiefly for the purpose of obtaining from members of the family, and other persons, further information in the shape of corrections and additions. Very many can doubtless be given by the members of the various branches, who are earnestly requested to send to the compiler all facts in their knowledge, which are not found here printed. Full names, exact dates and places are particularly desired, to enable the compiler to prepare, as is his intention and hope, a genealogy worthy of the family.
